1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the examiner found no teaching in the prior art that would render obvious the claimed method for detecting anomalous phase measurements in a satellite differential navigation system including the steps of "generating a phase mismatch vector, generating an average estimate vector, generating a residual vector, generating a vector of controlling signals, generating said estimated combined phase difference vector, and detecting anomalous phase measurements", claim 1, lines 6-16, "generating an increment vector, generating an average increment estimated vector, generating an incremental residual vector, generating an integrated residual vector, and detecting anomalous phase measurements", claim 33, lines 6-13, "generating an increment vector, generating a corrected increment vector, analyzing channel indicator alarms, generating an averaged increment estimate vector, generating a residual vector, and generating said cycle slip correction estimate using said residual vector", claim 50, lines 6-16.

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dao L. Phan whose telephone number is (703)306-4167. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9:00-5:30.
